

IPAV Newsletter Vol. 7 December 2013

• Celebrating Success

successes to you.

Congratulations, IPAV is exceptionally proud of the many recent achievements and developments that have been implemented in the past 7 months and would like to take this opportunity to highlight some of those key

• Greater IPAV Communication and Brand Awareness through Social Media Platforms, New Website, Monthly Online Newsletters & rebranded Property Professional Magazine

login area for IPAV students coming soon. IPAV has received excellent and encouraging feedback regarding the Monthly Online Newsletters being emailed to all Members and, due to its success and popularity, IPAV has now introduced the Newsletter to recipients who have registered their interest. IPAV has also increased circulation of its newly branded and upgraded quarterly magazine, The Property Professional.

For up to the minute communication you can now find IPAV on Facebook, connect with IPAV through LinkedIn and follow IPAV on Twitter. IPAV's newly designed and integrated Website is now live and will continue to grow over the coming weeks, with an additional dedicated lecture theatre will also accommodate in-house CPD and workshops for IPAV Members.

• IPAV Office

October saw the opening of IPAV's new state of the art lecture theatre, located on the first floor of our building on Baggot St. A number of specialised Fine Art lectures have taken place in the new theatre and will continue throughout the academic year. This with the Lord Mayor of Dublin as guest of honour. IPAV is delighted with the level of support received from Members and thanks everyone involved.

• Charity

It is especially important to raise awareness and funds for charity and IPAV is very proud in hosting its first President's Charity Lunch, in association with the Irish Cancer Society. This lunch is taking place today, 6th December, in the Westbury Hotel,

• Recognised Professional Valuation Standards & Bank Recognition

IPAV now has 62 TEGoVA "REV" Valuers who recently completed the "Blue Book" course. IPAV are confident, knowing the calibre of the 62 professionals involved, that they will be fine Ambassadors for this Institute and carry out their valuation work to the highest quality. The next "REV" course will commence in March 2014. The first CPD day for the newly qualified REV valuers will be the 29th March 2014, when an expert "Blue Book" valuer from Poland will visit. CEO Pat Davitt FIPAV confirms his recent agreement with AIB Bank that all valuation instruction letters in future will include: "can be completed to Blue Book valuation standards". IPAV is delighted to celebrate the professional valuation side of this Institute and the distance it has come.

• Seminars, Education & EGM

IPAV, in association with ITT, launched its new Level 6, PSRA approved Higher Certificate in Real Estate and currently has 33 first year students and 19 second year students registered on this course. IPAV was delighted to see such an encouraging number of Members in attendance at its recent Seminars on Regulation and Compliance, held in Cork, Claremorris and Portlaoise. IPAV recently held an EGM to amend the Institute's Memorandum & Articles of Association for the betterment and advancement of IPAV.

• Increasing Membership

IPAV has recently forwarded over 100 Membership Application Forms to prospective new Members who contacted the Institute with the view to joining IPAV.

Why not celebrate with us this Christmas, at the end of a very successful IPAV year. We are really looking forward to 2014 which starts with a very special occasion, on 6th January: the Presentation of our REV Certificates to our newly qualified REV Members. We wish all Members and friends a very happy and holy Christmas and a great prosperous and safe New Year

