

CIPS (Certified International Property Specialist) Course

It was hugely encouraging to receive such a positive and swift response to our email of 21st July regarding October's CIPS course. IPAV, together with the National Association of REALTORS®, can confirm this course is now fully booked with a waiting list in place. For any member who may be interested in doing this course at a future date, we recommend you click here for details.

IPAV at the 2017 National Ploughing Championships

We are delighted to announce IPAV will exhibit at this year's national ploughing championships running from Tuesday 19th – Thursday 21st September. IPAV, together with other likeminded property bodies, will exhibit under an umbrella group 'The National Property & Land Information Centre'. This is a great platform for all bodies to join together and to promote our Industry. There will be a schedule of talks over throughout the event, and full details will be circulated over the coming weeks.

2017 Valuation Conference

Now in its 3rd year, IPAV will be holding its annual valuation conference on Thursday 5th October at the Castleknock Hotel, Dublin 15. Themed "Irish Valuation Standards Embracing Europe", we recommend you note the date for your diary as full attendance will quality for 5 CPD hours and is strongly recommended by TEGoVA. This year we welcome Prof. George Matysiak the leading expert on AVM valuations in Europe as our keynote speaker.

REVASE Project

As the project progresses, training modules and materials are developing for use within the valuation profession. Information relating to the REVASE project is available at www.revase.eu

Over 100 Applications Received

The calibre and volume of applications received for the Higher Certificate in Real Estate, surpassed last year's unprecedented level of interest. We thank all applicants for their interest in this course and wish our new students the very best.

IPAV Submission – Rebuilding Ireland

The public consultation period for the review of Rebuilding Ireland is currently open and IPAV is now in the process of preparing its Submission. This is an ideal juncture at which IPAV members can make their own submission to voice their opinions and recommendations; as emailed to members on 28th July, you can access full details from the Department of Housing, Planning, Community & Local Government by clicking here

IPAV 2018 Pre-Budget Submission

As with previous years, IPAV would like to invite members to take part in our Pre-Budget Submission. We are currently working on this document and encourage members to use this opportunity and platform to voice any concern or suggestions they would like to see included in the submission. Please email Valerie not later than Friday 11th with your comments.

IPAV Submission – The Cost of Doing Business

The Joint Committee on Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation has invited IPAV to make a written submission regarding the Cost of Doing Business.

We are delighted with such an opportunity, and again, if any member would like to raise a particular point, please email Valerie not later than Monday 14th August.

Irish Times/ SCSi Tennis Tournament 2017

It's that time of year again and it's great to see Rob Downey & Joanne Lavelle back to represent IPAV on the tennis courts. For any member who would like to be part of this year's team, please email Valerie by return. The tournament takes place Wednesday 30th August at Donnybrook Tennis Club, Dublin 4. We look forward to hearing from you!

2017 Call For Entries

Further to our email of 17th July, we would like to remind members of the opportunity to promote your position and expertise within the property industry by taking part in this year's Property Industry Excellence Awards.

There is a great range of award categories to consider entering, and we strongly recommend members take part. We were delighted to support our 2 IPAV finalists at last year's awards, and it would be great to see such a representation again this year.

Fine & Decorative Arts Programme 2017- 2018

This year's Fine & Decorative Arts Programme is already looking to be a sell-out. IPAV's lecture series "Russian Intrigue, Art & Culture of Russia" is now fully booked, and a limited number of places now remain on the Diploma Course and also on the 10 week lecture series "Art & Antiques in the Changing Market". Full details are available here and we are pleased to offer 10% discount on course fees for IPAV Members and their staff.

The Property Professional Q3 in Digital Format

We've received a great response to this quarter's Property Professional Magazine. As posted and emailed to all Members, this edition, together with our back catalogue of magazines can be easily accessed in either pdf or digital format by clicking here.

IPAV latest Media Coverage & Social Media

For up to date news, we would like to remind members to view IPAV's latest media coverage & to follow IPAV on twitter, IPAV on LinkedIn &/or IPAV on Facebook
